"MARRYING IN HASTE TO REPENT AT LEISURE."—About two weeks since a man named McLean, a Scotchman, was on his way to this city from New York, on board the steamer Arrowac. During the trip McLean became acquainted with Colles, who introduced him to a fine looking and dashing young lady, whom Colles represented as his sister. McLean and the lady became very intimate. Strange to say, their intimacy resulted in a presumption on the part of McLean for a marriage. He had become infatuated with the girl. They became betrothed on the boat, and Colles, the brother, feigned great surprise on the fact being made known to him. It was agreed that the marriage ceremony should be performed as soon after the arrival of the boat as convenient. The trio put up at one of our hotels. McLean, who was a man of means, immediately set about purchasing the wedding attire for his intended bride. Two days elapsed in accomplishing this, but at last the happy day arrived and the pair were made one. The pair started westward, accompanied by the brother. McLean's destination was Chicago on business, before he met Colles on the boat, but they not only went there, but to Niagara Falls and other places. On their return they stopped at Syracuse, where McLean had some friends residing. On Wednesday last they arrived there. They put up at a hotel. In the morning McLean went out in search of his friends. On his return imagine his surprise to find the pair who represented themselves as brother and sister, criminals. McLean was horror stricken, turned in disgust from the room, and the guilty pair saw no more of him. On the occasion of the marriage the woman forgot to receive a certificate, and on Friday arrived here in search of one. She procured it and went off. McLean arrived here yesterday morning and, calling on the reverend gentleman who married him, requested him, that as no certificate of marriage had been granted, he would confer a favor by not granting one, and related his reason for it. He was informed that his wife had already received it. Again was he horror stricken, and went off with a heavy heart. From all that can be ascertained, McLean is a man of immense wealth, and the above marriage was a plot to have the female become an heir. As her paramour was in league with her in the above base strategy, we should not be surprised if she should succeed. If McLean sues for a divorce, we cannot see how he will obtain it. His evidence is insufficient, while that of Colles will go to the woman if necessary. McLean married in haste, he can now repent at leisure.—Albany Standard.

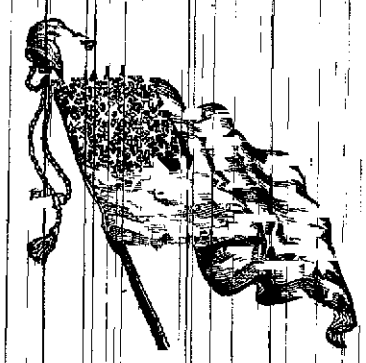
OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY



No flag but the Old Flag—the Red White and Blue
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

SATURDAY MORNING, NOV 23, 1861

The News

The Cortes, arrived yesterday morning, brings no later Eastern dates than received by telegraph yesterday; but furnishes us with many additional items of news and interesting details

There is no doubt of the great success of our fleet in capturing the fortresses at Port Royal, of the capture of an immense amount of cotton; of the great panic in the rebel army on the Potomac; of a great victory over the rebels in Kentucky, of the running of Price and his army out of Missouri, of the sending of reinforcements from the Chesapeake to our forces in the South, of the departure of another fleet from New York for the South, of the leaving of a flotilla to seal up the harbor of Charleston. Our Government have now fairly got to work, and they will be sure to improve the advantages they have already gained

War Events

Three Federal cavalry companies lately made a descent upon Turner's plantation on the Kentucky shore, but failed to find Turner. They, however, obtained his correspondence, which confirmed his treason, implicating Gov. McGoffin.

The rebels are escaping to Europe by way of Quebec. Ward, late Minister to China, and other Southern Traitors, have gone that way

Jeff. Thompson, on the 14th October issued his proclamation that he had come to Missouri, to conquer or die with the Secesheirs The last heard from him was, that he was running for Arkansas in double quick time.

Jim Lane believes that no mercy should be shown treason. The Administration, of course cannot approve of some of his violent measures, but a good many readily say Jim is right

It is now said that the Virginians charge Floyd with having saved his stealings from Government, and that he went into war to save himself from justice.

Gwin talked Secesh on his way to Panama, and Sumner arrested him. Will Stark have sense enough to hold his tongue on his way East? If he don't he may find a provost marshal to meet him with a paper on the dock at New York.

The Rebellion planned long ago.

Our simple neighbor of the Advertiser has labored with all his remarkable ability to make it appear that the revolution was the result of the election of President Lincoln. He justified the measure because the people in a constitutional manner, had elected the President. But his colleagues in iniquity had planned the rebellion long previous, and one of them Preston R. Brooks, (of bludgeon infamy in a speech at a meeting of his compeers made these declarations!—

"I tell you, fellow citizens, from the bottom of my heart, that the only mode which I think available for meeting the issue, is just to tear the Constitution of the United States, trample it under foot, and form a Southern Confederacy, every State of which shall be a slave holding State, and take our separate position in the family of nations These are my opinions They have always been my opinions I have been a disunionist from the time I could think If Fremont is elected President of the United States, I am for the people in their majesty, rising above the law and leaders, taking the power in their own hands going by concert or not by concert, and laying the strong arm of Southern freemen on the Treasury and archives of the Government.'

'Lincoln was elected—and the South attempted to rob the Treasury—which they did to some extent—but failed to seize the archives of Government.

One Day Later.

News by the Cortes

The steamer Cortes arrived at Portland on yesterday morning She brings one day later dates than our dispatch of the 15th, and many interesting items of News of previous dates greatly encouraging to our Union loving citizens

The Black Flag hoisted in the South—The Privateer Sumter captured—Great Victory in Kentucky, &c &c.

St Louis, Nov 12—A great battle has been fought in Pike County, Kentucky, between the federal forces under Gen Nelson and the rebels under Gen Wilson. A large force was engaged on both sides, and the rebels were routed with great slaughter. The victory for the Federals was complete Over 400 rebels were killed and 1,000 taken prisoners A large quantity of baggage and military stores fell into the hands of the federals The loss on the side of the Unionists was small

The successes of the federals in South Carolina, Kentucky and elsewhere, are creating the impression that the rebellion will soon be surpressed

Further reports of a split in the Southern Confederacy are in circulation.

St Louis, Nov 14—5 50 P M—Advices from Springfield, in this State, [Mo,] inform us that the main body of the Union forces were withdrawing The destination of the withdrawing troops is not known It is however, surmised that they are bound South.

The entire Rebel force, under Price, was going South at a rapid rate, at last accounts.

We learn from Tennessee that the other day five important railroad bridges in that State were burnt by the Unionists. These acts of destruction will seriously obstruct the operations of the Rebel forces in that State as their only means of transportation was by way of railroad

Mr Chase, Secretary of the Treasury, has issued a proclamation declaring Beaufort to be a port of entry Gen Denver has been assigned to the command of the Federal troops in Kansas

Col George Wright will remain in command of the Pacific Department

St. Louis, November 15th.—The steamer Champion, with California passengers from Panama, arrived to-day at New York.

Wm. M Gwin, ex-Senator, Calhoun Benham, U. S. District Attorney under Buchanan and Lancaster Brent, ex-member of the Legislature, all from California, were arrested on the steamer from San Francisco to Panama, just prior to her arrival at the latter port. They were arrested by order of Gen Sumner, for uttering treasonable expressions, and Secession documents were found in their possession. They came to New York as prisoners

Reinforcements are being continually sent South to join the troops at Beaufort.

From indications it is altogether probable that Gen. Harney will be placed in command on the Southern coast

It is certain that the Confederate privateer Sumter has been captured

The Secretary of the Treasury had an interview with the Commissioners of the Associated Banks this afternoon, at which an arrangement was made for the taking of the third $50,000,000 loan

Baltimore, November 15.—The amount of the Federal Loan taken by the citizens of Baltimore thus far is $10,000 000

Messrs Gwin, Benham and Brent have been released on parole, not to leave the country without permission of the Government.

Quincy, Ill, Nov 15.—Norfolk papers have been received at Baltimore containing news from Richmond to the 11th inst Col Corcoran and eighteen others, prisoners captured at Manassas, had been selected by lot to be hung by way of retaliation for Capt Baker and the crew of the privateer Savannah The Hon M. Ely drew lots for Corcoran, who is now in prison at Charleston. In case the court at New York condemned the crew of the Savannah to death, the Federal officers will be immediately hanged

The Charleston Mercury of the 10th has the following: The Yankee prisoners are all safely in jail, where they will abide the issue of the trial of our brave privateers at the North Should a drop of Southern blood be shed by the Northern courts for defending the South on the Seas, it will be paid with interest in Charleston. Self protection, the enforcement of the laws of nations and humanity alike require, in this instance, full and ample retaliation.

The Mercury says that the Federals would capture a large amount of cotton in the vicinity of Port Royal That journal of the 9th, publishes a letter, with the following head lines in capitals:

Naval Attack on Port Royal—The Enemy in Possession.—It goes on to say: We are in the midst of a mass of conflicting rumors which reached us yesterday from Port Royal Early in the morning it was generally believed that the abandonment of Fort Walker was owing to the supply of powder being exhausted. Our latest dispatches are not very definite, but very mystifying.

The Mercury continues: There is no doubt the fleet will succeed in capturing a large quantity of cotton of the best quality. We understand our forces have formed the obstructions in the river below Beaufort.

A despatch dated Potosburgh, Nov 9, says General Dayton's forces arrived in two steamers, and is now in Bluffton He reports the number of casualties from 30 to 50 Gen Donovan retreated by way of Lady Island and Beaufort to Port Royal.

Beaufort had not been burned as reported. It contained an immense deal of cotton but it was well known that Rhett on would be destroyed in case it was attacked

Quincy, Ill, Nov 15—The railroads from Pocahontas and Savannah are in the greatest danger

A flag of truce from Norfolk brought some 20 persons They leave on account of high prices of provisions A Norfolk paper contains the following

Augusta, Ga, Nov 13—A report is current here, for the past day or two that Black flags have been hoisted at Savannah Charleston and other places on the Southern coast which indicates that no quarter will be given to the invaders and none asked.

The Norfolk Day Book has the following advertisement: 'Attention Rattlesnakes!—Charge with full pursed and be prepared to strike If we can find any subjects in this town, they must receive the force of our venom Call at the City Hall and hear the Big Snake and the little Snakes Keep your eyes open, and bring in a list unfriendly to our holy cause By order of the Great Rattle.—November 11.'

Secretary Chase will appoint a Collector for Beaufort.

John Brown, a secessionist, was arrested at Boston on the 14th. He was from England and had a letter from Wm L Yancey in England to his son in Alabama, in which he speaks discouragingly of a Southern recognition by the European powers

Later despatches from Kentucky say that in the great battle there 400 rebels were killed and 2 015 were made prisoners

John E W Day, a North Carolina, a British subject, has been sent to Washington by Gov Reeder of North Carolina, to bring the two sons by the first marriage of the late Judge Douglas, and carry them south, to prevent their property, valued at $500,000, from being confiscated.

There is a report that the rebel forces at Northampton, N C are 50,000 strong This however, is not believed.

The rebels are about 4,000 strong at Winchester and 3,000 strong at Leesburg, Va

Two steamers, one from Annapolis and one from Monroe, have already sailed with reinforcements for the South

The Washington Dispatch of the New York Times says that there is evidently an intention on the part of the government to follow up the blow so successfully struck on the sea coast.

Gen. Harney has gone to Fortress Monroe It is thought he will take command of the reinforcements and participate in the campaig on the Southern coast.

New York, Nov. 15th.—Senator Gwin, Benham and Brent, were arrested by Gen Sumner, who was on board the steamer The New Granadian General Herran undertook to prevent the prisoners from being taken across the Isthmus The U S Consul decided that they should be—and it was done

Washington, Nov. 15.—Wm S Poor, of Kentucky, has been appointed Consul to Zanzibar, and Hinton Rowan Helper, of North Carolina, author of The Impending Crisis, to Buenos Ayres.

Anson Stager, of Ohio, has been appointed General Superintendent of the Government Telegraph, and is organizing a complete system for the transmitting and receiving of official intelligence to all points

A delegation of prominent citizens of Baltimore have visited Washington to make an appeal in behalf of loyal men They say the treason of the minority has involved the whole city in distress Another source of trouble is the disabled condition of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

St Louis, Nov 16—Heavy reinforcements for the Federals are going South, with large quantities of munitions of war Gen Harney will probably assume command

The capture of the rebel privateer Sumter is placed beyond a doubt It is said she was preparing for a descent upon the steamer Champion, with a view of seizing the California treasure shipments No further particulars

A large English steamer with a heavy cargo of munitions of war, including a number of rifled cannon Has been captured by a Federal frigate These munitions were intended for the Southern Army, but will be applied to a different purpose

The merchants of New Orleans are alarmed for the safety of their cotton Enormous quantities are stored there

Price is still retreating toward Arkansas

Quincy, Ill Nov 16—Col Jennison of the First Kansas Cavalry regiment, who left Leavenworth for Sedalia May on the 17th inst, has issued a proclamation to the people in the pro-slavery counties in Missouri warning them of his approach and threatening death and destruction to all if they do not stop giving aid and comfort to the enemy Col Jennison says that traitors will everywhere be treated as outlaws—as enemies of God and man, too base to hold any description of property, and owning no rights which loyal men are bound to respect The last dollar and the last slave of rebels will be taken and turned over to the government

Since Stark left the Advertiser it has become a perfect Miss Nancy concern We shall not at all wonder if it should come out Union and support the Government within three months, especially should his late colleagues escape the ocean, and get to Fort Lafayette

The patient and polite Ladies and Gentlemen are respectfully solicited to call and examine just received by the last steamer, embracing a full line of Ladies' Cloaks Shawls in Points Royales Opera Hoods Scotch DeLaines Chinchillas, Colorings Merinos Self-tin Plaids Duvals All-wool DeLaines Opera Flannels Embroidered Mohairs, all wool Plaids French Chintz and new style Carpets together with a full assortment of Broadway style of French Dress Front Coats, Habit Suits Overcoats Talma Cloaks, Velvet Vests, Fancy Satin Opera Hats and new style Scarfs All the articles are guaranteed to be of the latest Paris and New York fashions and can be seen at HARKER'S, opposite Commercial Wharf

CITY.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The whole of yesterday was occupied by the Court in the examination of witnesses in the case of the State of Oregon vs. P. Patterson. The testimony was closed yesterday evening when the Court adjourned. The Counsel agreed to commence their arguments before the jury this morning.

COMMON COUNCIL.—No business of any importance was transacted by this body last night.

RESTORED TO CITIZENSHIP.—David O'Neal, a prisoner in the Penitentiary, had three days of his term remitted by the Governor, and was therefore restored to the rights and privileges of a citizen.

The steamer Cortes had about two hundred tons of freight.

OVERBOARD.—The captain of the brig Sunny South, lying at anchor at Flander's Wharf, accidentally fell overboard yesterday evening, slightly bruising himself in the fall between the vessel and the wharf.

PER STEAMER JULIA.—The amount of gold dust which arrived last night, amounted to over one hundred thousand dollars. Favorable stories are told as to the richness of the Salmon river gold mines, by returned miners.

IN THE RIVER.—The Bark Samuel Merrill, Williams, master, from San Francisco for this place, is in the river; she will probably be in this port to-day.

The Advocate copies the dispatch received by us on Thursday morning, and credits it to the Marysville Appeal. The Appeal which we examined, did not reach this city for four hours after the Advocate, containing our dispatch, was published. We cannot think so respectable editor was cognizant of the wrong thus done us.

From our Correspondent.

WALLA WALLA, Nov 14th, 1861.

MR. EDITOR.—Having a moment's leisure before the closing of the Express, I avail myself of it, to give your readers the current news of this section of the country.

Salmon River and its immense gold deposits is the only talked of heard of here. Miners are daily arriving in town from these mines, bringing with them the evidence of their riches, in the shape of well filled bags of dust, varying in amount from $1,000 to $10,000. I saw with my own eyes forty seven pounds brought down by one individual, the result of a few days' work.—That they are all they are represented to be no one doubts, and the result is that every man that has means and is willing to take the chances of a hard winter, is "going off for Salmon," as fast as Canvas horses can take them there. Much suffering will be the sequel. Rumors are afloat of new and much richer diggings being discovered some forty miles on Salmon, but of this more when the facts are learned.

Ned Meany, well known to the people of Portland as one of the proprietors of the Western Hotel, was killed a few evenings since at a place called Jackson's Ferry, a few miles below Lewiston, by a packer by the name of ——, who stabbed him to the heart. It is said that Meany drew a pistol on him, which the packer caught in his left hand, and drew a knife and killed him instantly.

This valley is now covered with about six inches of snow, and from present appearances as much more may be expected. More anon.

The Victoria Theatre,

Situated on Government street,

VICTORIA, VANCOUVER ISLAND,

Is offered to Lease to responsible parties

At a Moderate Rent.

THE BUILDING is capable of seating between 700 and 800 persons, is lighted and plastered throughout, will be remodelled and newly painted, and contains three private boxes on either side of the stage and two at the head of the pit. The stage is well furnished with scenery appropriate for any style of performance, and is supplied with gas fixtures and an entrance in the rear. At the back of the stage is a powerful force pump and a full supply of hose connected with a large cistern from which water may be directed to any portion of the building. Should no particular advantage offer for the establishment of a permanent theatre to the undersigned, a moderate capital will be required to cover the current expenses, the building being well supplied with every article necessary for the successful prosecution of the business.

The Medical and Surgical Institute.

DR. J. CZAPKAY, a skilful scientific physician who has devoted his whole life to the study of the diseases of the human system, and has had the highest prizes often awarded to practitioners in this department, much discretion and the most successful practice as a physician in the profession. Has established a shining light in the public mind, that no one can be in doubt where to go for a perfect cure. Dr. Czapkay has been for many years Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian army, and is a graduate of the University of Pesth, and has had much practice with and under the celebrated Dr. Semmelweis, Chief Surgeon of the Hospital of Vienna, and is the author of many valuable medical works, which have been received with great favor by the medical profession of the United States and Europe. Dr. Czapkay's testimonials are published in the most first class medical journals. The Doctor's office is at his Medical and Surgical Institute on Sansome street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the building of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to come to the city can be treated by corresponding. Please send a description of your case in your letters, and they will get immediate attention. Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to Brown's Bronchial Troches or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. The Victoria Colonist of Nov. 19th, has an article, in which the argument is pretty well sustained, that the Portland papers assert that the Nez Perce and Salmon River mines are as good or better than those of Cariboo, while the Victoria papers are equally certain that the Cariboo mines are altogether superior to the Nez Perce and the Salmon River mines. This is about a fair statement of the Colonist's article. Now there is another important point in connection with the matter.—Miners are constantly going to our mines, and they can work in them comfortably 7 or 9 months of the year, while in the Cariboo mines they can only work 2 or 3 months. Our mines are so situated that provisions can be carried to them and sold in them at cheap prices compared with those at Cariboo. These are about the leading facts in regard to the mines of Cariboo and those of Washington and Oregon. No doubt many miners will go to British Columbia including of course many of the almond eyed race, while about twenty times as many will go to our mines, excluding the said almond-eyed race. We hope our friends at Victoria are satisfied with their chances; we are with our's.

The following is the memorandum and list of passengers of steamer Cortes:

MEMORANDUM.—Steamship Cortes, Thos. Huntington commander, left San Francisco Nov 16th at 3 P. M. Crossed Columbia river bar on the 21st, at 9 A. M., and arrived at Portland same day at 11.30 P. M.

the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a life of existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health. There is nothing, else in the dread catalogue of human ills, so sure in its destructive action upon the system—drawing its victims more surely than the ravages of a few years of excesses down into the untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, unfits a person for meeting society, business, and all the requirements and leaves the luckless wretch, in body and mind, a prey to consumption and a train of evils worse to be feared than death itself. With the fullest confidence in the unfailing virtues of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the strongest desire to restore my patients to health and the full vigor of manhood, I offer my services to the afflicted.

Throughout the cities and towns of Mexico and South America, I have practiced for fifteen years of practice, and in no part of the world are the more remarkable cures effected. Medicines will be sent to any part of the States of Oregon and Washington Territory by patients enclosing, the necessary remittance in a letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the ravages of disease, who, having received the greatest benefit and impelled by gratitude, make known their cases and return thanks, and their statements are authenticated by a Notary Public. The communications are simply and unadorned by their publicity, and we commend their perusal to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate.—The undersigned desirous of assisting those who may be unfortunate enough to be afflicted as he was afflicted when a permanent relief of their sufferings was obtained feels it his duty to thus publicly express his sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay for the speedy recovery of his health. Borne down by the effects of a too frequent indulgence in the vicious practices of early life, passion in youth, depressed in body and mind, I felt that even the most trifling duty imposed upon me in the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease of little importance—but alas after a few weeks and in some instances months of their treatment, I found, to my unspeakable horror that instead of relief, my symptoms became more alarming in their torture, and being told by them that my disease, being principally confined to the blood, there would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever regaining my health strength and energy, and as a last resort met with but a faint hope called upon Dr. Czapkay, who after examining my case prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and confusion of my head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict observance of his directions and advice my head became clear, the ideas collected the constant pain in my back and loins, the weakness of my limbs the nervous trepidation of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the dark and evil forebodings the self-distrust and dread of evil, the inability in others the incapability to study, and want of application, the frightful exciting and at times pleasurable dreams of night I bowed by involuntary discharges, have all been cured, and in fact in two months, after having despaired of the doctor I felt as if inspired by a new life—that I was not but a short time ago I contemplated, to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate against falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice being assured by my own experience that all placed under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

MARYSVILLE, June 26, 1856.

Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY San Francisco—Sir: I have used the last of your medicine, and do not think I shall need more, as I feel very well, except that I have not yet got my strength yet but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks, you may recollect, since I came to your institute with my constitution, as I believed, entirely ruined, and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do something to ease the pain in my back and head and strengthen me so that I would not get excited and fret over everything. Now that you know what I expected, I will leave you to judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from all symptoms of, and the removal of those sores and blotches on my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the discharge of those emissions, which you said were the principal cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you what was the greatest joy or my surprise, for except my weakness I have got my strength. I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your fee. I think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody can be benefited you may put this letter in the newspapers. I believe me gratefully yours. THOMAS WARD.

Thankfulness is the incentive to all good deeds.

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of gratitude I wish to lay before the public a case which demands recommendation not only as an act of scientific skill but of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of sickness which owing to my inability to meet the expense consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the management which I met with on attempting it, proved such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of labor, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies, I yet dreaded the miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from the storm as persons who sought to prolong the existence of an object of misery. While in this state and having previous to my illness tasted the sweets of life, I once more was impelled to the task of seeking after a physician, and by recommendation fixed upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my case, and of my inability to reward him for his services, the remembrance of which however he at once undertook my case, and by the blessing of God I was once more restored to perfect health. Until to reward him for the boon which I then received and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I do hereby tender to myself and all afflicted to make the same public, under that those in need of medical advice may find in him a physician whom every confidence can be placed.
